

Choose The Leader

Can you match the leader to the description of how they are chosen? Draw a line to match the correct title with the description.

 King	Appointed by the Monarch acting on the advice of the government, helped by a steering committee including representatives from a range of literary and arts organisations.
 President of the USA	Appointed by the member's council (now the Board of Trustees) for a five year term which is made up of members elevated by the association.
 Headteacher	Decided by descent (being in a particular family), religion (must be in communion with the Church of England) and primogeniture (firstborn child). Previously, younger male heirs displaced their older sisters. This was abolished in 2013.
 Prime Minister	Elected indirectly through the Electoral College to a four-year term, along with the vice president. The Electoral College is made up of representatives of each US state. No person who has been elected to two presidential terms may be elected to a third.
 Pope	The leader of the winning political party at a general election who is then invited by the Monarch to form a government.
 Poet Laureate	Through a process known as a Conclave where all cardinals under the age of 80 vote for the person they think most suitable.
 Chief Scout	(Typically) Through a job advert, a selection process, and interview by the governing authority (local council, school governors, school board etc.).

Circle the three words that you think are the most important qualities in a leader:

Humble

Honest

Smart

Friendly

Confident

Trustworthy

Bossy

Focussed

Clever

Ambitious

Shrewd

Good listener

Wise

Selfish

Funny

Eye for detail

Decisive

Kind

Brave

In two to three sentences, explain why you chose the three words: